

VOLUME XLI--NUMBER 73

North Carolina paper complains of the city of negro help and thinks that as no was made for slaves, the freedmen never at leisure to do any work at the aped moment.

Heated local dispute is raging in San cisco over the alleged illegal action of treasurer of the city and county in de- pending several hundred thousand dollars of ic funds in a bank.

There is talk of organizing an encampment of Odd Fellows in Gardiner.

Geo. W. Strout, of Durham, lost a valuable horse a few nights since.

Mr. Levi Curtis of Starks, has lost a horse about forty years old.

The people of Harmony, at their annual meeting voted to maintain a free high school coming fall.

Two women walked a distance of three miles to a dramatic entertainment at Starks Friday evening.

The Cheese factory at South Paris will be enlarged to double its former capacity. Last year it turned out 300 cheeses.

Mr. Milliken, station master of the Eastern Railroad at Biddeford, was stricken with paralysis Tuesday.

The contract between the Ogdensburg and Eastern Railroad, before reported, has been signed and delivered.

Mr. Theodore Braley, of Carthage, died suddenly Saturday, March 21st, aged about years.

A horse belonging to Lyman Houlton got out of the stable early Monday morning, and is afterwards found dead.

The funeral services that adorned the Peabody estate here assisted in the funeral ceremonies of the School Committee Monday night.—Portland Advertiser.

E. H. Ballard has been chosen Second Lieutenant of the Capital Guards, (Co. F, 1st Maine Cavalry), and will leave for his new post on Monday.

During the last week of the year, it was paid out of the Norway shoe factory, and nine hundred cases, of sixty pairs each, have been shipped since January 1st.

Gardiner City Council seems to be a progressive one. They have given the Public Library $500; voted $1000 towards a Soldiers' monument; and $8,500 for paving.

The Committee on the Edward Little statue, to be erected in Auburn, have made arrangements with the Sculptor Simmons, to model the proposed statue. The figure will be of bronze, in standing position, on a granite pedestal.

On Thursday morning of last week he was trying to get upon the cars while in motion. His left foot came between the cars in such a manner as to crush it.

On Thursday a lad of 24 years, of Porter, named Chas. D. French, while attempting to climb a picket fence, caught his foot between two pickets and was thrown head forward reeking the large tone of the leg below the knee.

C. H. Skinner's little son of four years while at play on the ice at St. Albans, fell through, when a five year old son of John Albans, at the risk of his own life, ran to

There is talk of petitioning for a new trial in "Starkie vs. Anson." A pauper case, in which there have been already four trials, at a cost of from five to seven thousand dollars, to determine the residence of one poor old lady who forgot to marry in her youthful days.

Turnerville narrowly escaped a conflagration Tuesday morning. A trader on his

On Tuesday morning his house and farm buildings of Charles Bradbury of Green, were wholly destroyed by fire, and the rest everything but his cattle, horses and carriages. He was insured for $1200, which will not more than half cover his loss.

The pastors of the churches in Bath—Revs. John O. Fiske, Samuel Dike, Wm. Hart, S. A. Kingsbury, E. W. Porter, M. H. Houghton, F. S. Wiley, J. R. Day—have passed and signed resolutions expressing their belief that the traffic in the use of intoxicating liquor is a great and lamentable

Dr. Edward Hitchcock of Amherst denies the truth of the story recently circulated in regard to his adventure in a cave, and says: "I never knew of Miller's Cave in Salisbury till I saw the item. I never was in the town in my life, and have never as yet lived under any circumstances."

DRY & FANCY GOODS
At NO. 25 MAIN STREET.
 Having decided to remove from Bangor, I shall close out my entire stock of Dry and Fancy Goods at less than Auction Prices. Remember this is a humming as I SHALL POSITIVELY CLOSE MY STORE BEFORE APRIL 1st.
 All persons having unsettled accounts please call and settle.

NO. 25 MAIN STREET,
Store formerly occupied by Rollins & Dickey.

DEPOSITS RECEIVED.

Payable on Demand, by Checks, (same as at a National Bank); and also CERTIFICATES OF DEPOSIT issued, payable at such specified time (the Depositor may desire; and

INTEREST ALLOWED

Bowler & Merrill
BANKERS,
145 EXCHANGE ST. - - BANGOR
ME 05401

Seeds, Berries, Greenhouse Plants &c. sent free also catalogue of flower seeds sent with each C order. Address HERBERT W. WATKINS,
Chicago, Illinois

